Chiropractors Wanted: Join Our Team at Seraphim Health and Wellness in Willoughby-Langley!

Seraphim Health and Wellness is excited to welcome two full-time Chiropractors to our eco-conscious clinic. We offer a unique chance to be part of an interdisciplinary team dedicated to whole-body health. Whether you're a seasoned professional or a new graduate, we provide the perfect setting for you to thrive.

What We Offer:

- Stress-Free Practice: Full-service treatment rooms equipped with high-end ergonomic equipment, where you can focus solely on patient care.
- Full Support: Includes billing, booking, collections services, and all the essentials like tables, supplies, and external marketing.
- Collaborative Environment: Work alongside like-minded professionals, fostering cross-referrals and comprehensive patient care.
- Shift Selection Options: We provide various shift sections to suit your scheduling needs, ensuring you can balance work with your personal life.
- Community and Integrity: Join a clinic that values evidence-based treatment, superior customer service, and active community involvement.

We're Looking For:

- Passionate Professionals: Chiropractors who are committed to excellence, have great patient rapport, and are eager to contribute to our clinic's community.
- Comprehensive Care: Ability to perform various adjustments, including infant and prenatal, and drive success through positive patient outcomes.
- Registered Chiropractors: Registered with the College of Chiropractors of British Columbia.

Incentives available for practitioners with a transferable patient base, conducted with integrity.
